

Variables used from the face-to-face survey conducted in Argentina using a convenient sample of AUH beneficiaries.

Variable	Description	Values / Coding
educ_labor	Indicates whether the respondent prioritizes investment policies (education or employment programs) over new cash transfer policies.	1 = Prioritizes education/employment investment policies 0 = Prioritizes new cash transfers worse_p	Respondent's evaluation of their personal economic situation compared to the previous year.	1 = Worse than last year 0 = Same or better than last year class	Social class identification.	Categorical: 1–5 (lower, lower-middle, middle, upper-middle, upper) ideo	Political ideology or partisan orientation.	1-10 (1 being left-leaning and 10 right-leaning) female	Respondent's gender.	1 = Female 0 = Non-Female inefficacy_p	Perceived inefficacy of conditional cash transfer policies in the country.	5 points scale from 0(effective) to 1(ineffective)